14th OpenFOAM Workshop (OFW14)

July 23-26, 2019 in Duisburg, Germany

www.openfoamworkshop.org

OpenFOAM is a free and open source software for computational continuum mechanics, such as computational fluid dynamics. This annual Workshop is one of the most influential event with regards to OpenFOAM Technology in the year and is organized by the OpenFOAM community – for the OpenFOAM community. Researchers, engineers, scientists and students from all over the world meet and exchange their experiences, knowledge and problems in a free and open forum.

Workshop Topics

OpenFOAM Workshops have always provided a wide and open field to discuss OpenFOAM related topics amongst the community. Users of all experience levels are welcome.

- Aerodynamics
- Civil Engineering
- Complex Materials
- Compressible Flows
- Fluid-Structure Interaction
- General CFD
- Heat & Mass Transfer
- Lagrangian Methods
- Multiphase Flows
- Naval Hydrodynamics (Offshore)
- Optimization and Control
- Porous Media
- Pre- and Post-processing
- Reacting flows
- Sprays and Injection
- Turbomachinery
- Turbulence Modelling

Abstract Submission

Abstracts shall be submitted up until the 29. March 2019 via the online submission form and an acceptance notice will be given before 31. May 2019.

Posters are welcome as well and will have a dedicated session. Please provide a short and concise abstract for the poster until 29. March 2019. Work-in-Progress is very welcome.

The abstract topics include but are not limited to the list of “Workshop Topics”. All abstracts are peer reviewed by experts in the field. For more information please refer to the official OpenFOAM workshop website: openfoamworkshop.org.
